

BEE COLLEGE HONEY SHOW

Friday - March 6, 2020

General Rules and Regulations:

1. All honey and wax exhibited must be the bona fide product of the exhibitors' own bees (unless noted otherwise).
2. All wax must be 100% pure beeswax, of uniform color and consistency, with no colorings added.
3. All exhibits are to be entered between 9:00 am-12:00 noon on Friday.
4. No late entries will be accepted.
5. All entries will remain in the show area for public viewing after the judging.
6. Judging commences on Friday at 1:00 pm.
7. Staging of exhibits will be carried out exclusively by show stewards. Exhibitors are not allowed in the judging area until after the results are announced.
8. Identification labels – exhibitors must label every item with the identification labels supplied. These labels must not be altered and are to be fixed to honey jars approximately ½ inch centered above the bottom of the jar or mead bottle. Other classes have I.D. label affixation guidelines wherever noted.
9. In classes where there are duplicate or triplicate entries, all entries must be identical.
10. Exhibitors may have multiple entries in a class, but no single entry may be shown in more than one class.
11. Judges and stewards are permitted to exhibit; however, they are not allowed to preside over classes they have entered.
12. To retrieve their entries, exhibitors must sign out each item with the show secretary no earlier than 1pm Saturday.
13. The Honey Show Referee is empowered to:
 - a. Increase the number of prizes and/or awards in any class should the number and high standards of merit warrant his doing.
 - b. Withhold prizes in case of insufficient entries.
 - c. Submit any exhibit for analysis.
 - d. Retain all or any part of any exhibit, concerning which a protest has been made, until a decision upon such protest has been finalized.
 - e. Decide any question as to the interpretation of the foregoing rules and regulations.
14. Decision of the Show Committee on any matter whatsoever, under or in relation to the foregoing rules and regulations, or on any protest or objection in relation thereto, or to any exhibit, shall be final.
