

Preface

This bulletin is a report of the first five years of IFAS's special mole cricket project. It summarizes what has been learned of mole cricket biology and describes what now seem the most promising avenues to reducing or eliminating mole cricket damage in Florida.

T. J. Walker (Editor of this bulletin and Co-ordinator of the Mole Cricket Project 1979–date)

December 1983

First printing: December 1984

Second printing: September 1990

This Bulletin was first published in 1985.